Tri-Valley appreciates local donations

This month, Tri-Valley Developmental Services was the recipient of two donations from the local community. In early December, Mike Reid, Home Savings Bank representative, presented Bill Fiscus, Tri-Valley CEO, with a monetary donation.

Then, on Dec. 14, representatives of the Cofachique Daughters of the American Revolution donated craft supplies to Tri-Valley's Life Enrichment Program. The Cofachique DAR has members from Chanute, Humboldt, and Iola.

"Tri-Valley staff and individuals served appreciate the support we receive from our community," said Tricia Campbell, special projects coordinator.

Both donations will be used to support Tri-Valley's goal of "Providing opportunities for persons with disabilities to achieve their preferred lifestyle in the community in which they live."
